Teaching English to foreign students as part of the expansion of Russian education (MGIMO experience)

The expansion of Russian education is now recognized as one of the newest challenges facing the modern system of Russian higher education in the framework of the implementation of the strategies "National Innovation System" and "Priority-2030". In this regard, the experience of MGIMO, which established its first foreign branch in Tashkent, the Republic of Uzbekistan, in 2018, is critical. The purpose of this research is to study the effectiveness of the English training within the framework of spreading the influence of Russian education on the example of MGIMO-Tashkent. The authors presented the English Department experience in the field of teaching languages at MGIMO as part of the expansion of Russian education (2021).
